

1. Michener Art's Museum (MAM) archived tapes are finished and on the Web site. We now need to contact MAM to see if they want to link to STHS' site and their artist's bio pages.
2. Historic Carversville Society project has gone before their Board. In September I have been asked to visit their Board meeting to talk about the project.
3. Will Rivinus' has expressed interest in doing a 6th interview on the topic of his major book: the Delaware and Lehigh National Heritage Corridor. Jack Donahue has said he will do it.
4. Phoebe Taylor, Artist, horsewoman and author Oral History is on line. Her pamphlet/books are scanned. Beth has them and in June/July she will be able to post them to our "Book Collection" under Library on the web.
5. Nancy Pyle McGee contacted us with high praise for our total web site. A second email has been forwarded to Judy for looking to see what we have in the archives on the houses Ms. McGee is interested in. She will visit from Florida June 3d, and we plan to do an oral history of her memories of her Solebury life in particular her experiences at the schoolhouse in the 1940's, teachers etc. She will also bring photos of her and her friends at the Schoolhouse from this time, something our archives lack!
