Saturday, September 26, 2015

Join us for a delightful evening of conviviality and great repast in beautiful and gracious settings. Seating is very limited, so make your reservations early!

We begin at Bob and Alexandra Ellison's home at 5:30 PM where all guests will enjoy a "sip and bite," say "hi" to neighbors and friends, and discover where and with whom you will be dining.

From the Ellison's home you will follow directions to one of twelve homes to discover your host house. Please bring a bottle of wine to thank them for being so gracious. Dinner will be prepared by renowned chef Ian Knauer, author of The Farm, host of his own PBS show "The Farm" and recently featured on the cover of Bucks Life magazine.

This is a wonderful way to help support the Solebury Township Historical Society. It is our signature event, designed to raise money to support necessary upkeep for our Solebury jewel, the one-room schoolhouse.
