

Archive Report: February, 2017

Marilyn and I have finished checking the book list with the books we have on the shelves. This list, with minor editing, can now replace the outdated one on the website.

We are working rapidly through the Historic District files, thanks to our BCCC student volunteer, Noor Takedine. My hope is that, once these are done, we can do the same with the miscellaneous files.

We might have a volunteer for the scrapbooks. A friend of Vicky de Haven's, Judy Propert, is going to come to the schoolhouse and see if she wants to take them on. We hope so since nothing has been done since Gwen Davis left.

We will be getting more material for the Waring collection. Mary Combs, the executor for Priscilla Waring's estate, got in touch with us recently and, after she finishes going through Priscilla Waring's effects, will send us a list of what will be donated.
